Invitation to apply for the 2021 Faculty Prize

The Faculty of Science awards the 2021 Faculty Prize for outstanding contributions by young scholars. This includes work from the various scientific disciplines represented in the Faculty of Science or from one of the related Institutions associated with the University of Basel (Swiss Tropical and Public Health Institute, Friedrich Miescher Institute).

The work should be submitted in form of a completed doctoral thesis of excellent academic quality and marked with the highest possible grade summa cum laude (with distinction); or in form of an outstanding scientific publication from a postdoctoral project, published in an important international journal. The work should not be older than two years at the time of submission. To encourage the achievements of young scholars, applicants should be no older than 35 years of age at the time of completion of their dissertation. Candidates must have carried out the work at an Institute of the University of Basel.

The winner will receive CHF 5,000

Applicants are invited to submit their scientific work (one copy) together with their CV by email (diss-philnat@unibas.ch) to the Dean's Office of the Faculty of Science by 31 March 2021. The Faculty will review the submissions and make its decision towards the end of the spring semester.

The prize will be awarded as part of the Dies academicus ceremony.
