The employment can be extended upon mutual agreement. The maximum employment duration is six years. If it is imperative for scientific training, and especially in relation to family responsibilities, the employment may be extended for a maximum of one more year.

A termination of the postdoctoral agreement is possible at any time at the request of the postdoc.

In case of a negative evaluation of the scientific achievements before the end of the agreed postdoctoral period, the postdoctoral agreement or the postdoctoral relationship will not be extended. If the postdoctoral relationship is linked to an employment contract at the University of Basel, it shall not be extended. Please see OWP § 23.

In case of conflict, and upon request of the parties involved, the status review may be carried out together with the Dean of Research or a person delegated by him/her. At least two months before the end of the contract, a status review has to take place.

With this postdoctoral agreement, an information sheet on counseling services at the University of Basel is handed out, which also contains information on maternity/paternity regulations, mandatory Swiss military, civil protection and fire protection service, as well as any ensuing substitute regulations.
